Water Laboratories - Certified Drinking Water Commercial Laboratories

Below is the list of laboratories that are certified to test drinking water for compliance. To view more detailed information on a laboratory listed below, just click on the laboratory name. The list is sorted by their Rank. The Rank indicates how many of the contaminants you have selected the laboratory is actually certified to test. A 100% ranking means that the laboratory is certified to test all the contaminants you have chosen in the previous search criteria page.
